

MILITARY & VETERANS' RESOURCE GUIDE

WELCOME

---

We're honored to welcome you to our community.

Whether you are a graduate or an undergraduate student coming to us after service, a transfer student, an active duty member of the armed forces, or a military-connected learner, we are here to help you achieve your educational and professional goals.

The guide provides information about the resources Regis offers to those who have and continued to serve. Please do not hesitate to contact us at 781.768.7050 or visit the Regis Veterans Center in St. Joseph Hall for in-person support.

PROGRAMS AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

As a U.S. veteran or active duty service member at Regis, you are eligible to use your U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) education benefits toward certificate programs as well as undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degrees. You may also qualify for special programs, including Regis College's Yellow Ribbon Program.

What academic programs does Regis offer veterans?

Regis offers bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees, as well as certificate and accelerated programs. Students can study on-campus, online, or in a hybrid format. A full list of all current programs is available at regiscollege.edu/majors

What types of benefits are available?

Depending on military status, a military-connected learner may be eligible for various sources of funding to support their education at the undergraduate, graduate and doctoral level. A comprehensive and detailed listing is available on the Veteran's Affairs website, <https://www.va.gov/education>

How do I apply for benefits?

For more information about benefit eligibility, please visit gibill.va.gov

Who can I contact for more information about Veteran Benefits?

Contact the Regis Veterans Center at 781.768.7207 or email veterans@regiscollege.edu.

ON CAMPUS SERVICES AND SUPPORT

Academic and Tutoring Support

781.768.7398 | regisma.me/FOIL | Second Floor of the Library

The Finucane and O'Sullivan Institute for Learning offers students tutoring services, academic coaching, learning strategy workshops, and various learning communities to promote their academic, personal, and professional growth. The staff helps students foster habits that will enable them to become resilient and curious lifelong learners capable of reaching their academic and personal goals.

Center for Inclusive Excellence

781.768.8061 | regisma.me/CIE | First Floor of Saint Joseph's Hall

The Center for Inclusive Excellence (CIE) seeks to foster a culture and campus community in which all types of diversity are valued, engaged with, have access, and all contribute to the holistic development of our community members, and the institutional excellence of the university.

Center for Ministry and Service

781.768.7027 | regisma.me/ministry | First Floor of Saint Joseph's Hall

The Center for Ministry and Service (CMS) at Regis fosters and develops the spiritual life of students, faculty, and staff. While preserving the rich Catholic heritage of the university, the Center for Ministry and Service seeks to provide opportunities for persons of all faiths to grow spiritually, connect with others, and participate in service locally, nationally, and across the globe. Contact CMS to learn more about service opportunities, worship options, or to just meet with a staff member.

Counseling Services

781.768.7293 | regisma.me/counseling | Ground Floor of Maria Hall

A staff of professionals are prepared to assist our students through a wide variety of concerns, including common veteran challenges such as adjusting back to civilian life and post-traumatic stress disorder. Please do not hesitate to contact us for free, personal, comprehensive, and confidential counseling care.

Health Services

781.768.7290 | regisma.me/healthservices | Rear of Maria Hall

Our on-site health clinic is staffed by highly qualified professionals and offers services including vaccines, laboratory testing, physical exams, women's and men's health, screening tests, treatment for acute illnesses or injuries, as well as health promotion and maintenance. Health insurance is accepted.

Office of Student Accessibility Services

781.768.7384 or 7082 | regisma.me/OSAS | Third Floor of Library

The Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) works directly with students to provide support and accommodations for a wide range of disabilities, with a goal of creating opportunities for greater independence and self-advocacy. To receive services, students must schedule an appointment by calling or emailing courtney.mulligan@regiscollege.edu to complete an application form, sign releases, and provide necessary documentation. Examples of disabilities include, but are not limited to:

- › Learning Disabilities-ADD/ADHD, Autism Spectrum Disorder, Dyslexia, Traumatic Brain Injury, and neurological disorder
- › Psychiatric Disabilities-Depression, Anxiety, Bipolar Disorder, and PTSD
- › Physical/Sensory Disabilities-mobility, hearing, speaking, and vision limitations
- › Medical/Temporary Disabilities-chronic illness, dietary restrictions, and injury

Student Veterans Association

781.768.7847 | regisma.me/engagement | Lower Level of the Student Center

The Student Veterans Association is comprised of a group of veteran students that have a desire to make connections, assist with the transition to college, and to promote veterans issues to the wider community. To get involved, contact the Office of Student Engagement for more information about meeting times and events.

Veterans Center

781.768.7293 | regisma.me/veterans | Ground Floor of Maria Hall

Located within Saint Joseph Hall, the Veterans Center is a designated space on campus for military connected learners to study, gather, and conduct Regis business on campus. Hours of operation are posted within the space. Management of the space is under the supervision of the Manager of Veteran Services, whose office is located within the Center.
