

Articulation Agreement

Between Regis College and Salve Regina University

PURPOSE: To provide qualified students in Regis College's M.A. in Heritage Studies for a Global Society and CAGS in Heritage Studies the opportunity to continue their studies at Salve Regina University to earn a Ph.D.

AGREEMENT: This agreement defines the terms agreed to by the parties regarding graduates of the M.A. in Heritage Studies for a Global Society and C.A.G.S. in Heritage Studies from Regis College to apply to Salve Regina University's Ph.D. program in the Humanities.

1. Salve Regina University welcomes applicants for the Ph.D. program from Regis College who have earned the Master of Arts (M.A.) Degree in Heritage Studies for a Global Society or from the Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies (C.A.G.S.) in Heritage Studies, have maintained an overall GPA of 3.5 or higher, and have been recommended by the director of the M.A. or C.A.G.S. program at Regis College.
2. Regis students who have completed HI 601 Fieldwork Methods at Regis College would have met the research methods requirement and would not be required to take HUM 500: Research Methods at Salve Regina.
3. Three courses from Regis College's Master of Arts degree (as appropriate) would be applied toward Salve Regina University's concentration requirement. Transfer of credit would be determined by Salve Regina University's Graduate Program Director in Humanities. Students must have earned a grade of B or better in a course for transfer.
4. Students who graduate from the Regis College C.A.G.S. program would qualify to have up to three C.A.G.S. courses applied toward the Salve Regina University requirements. Transfer of credit would be determined by Salve Regina University's Graduate Program Director in Humanities. Students must have earned a grade of B or better in a course for transfer.

