Secondary School Counselor Guide

Bring Your Purpose. Find Your Path.
Regis College is a co-ed, Catholic institution that was founded in 1927, where for over eight decades it has prided itself on being a diverse and welcoming learning community guided by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston.

Within the backdrop of a strong liberal arts foundation, today a Regis education is one that is very much career-focused. Here, our students have access to an array of comprehensive majors, but just as importantly are introduced to the concept of Academic Pathways - the link that connects an all encompassing undergraduate experience to much more than just a diploma; it links it to their future professional success.

So ask your students, “What’s your path?” For many, that path could lead to Regis College and beyond.

Visiting Regis
Did you know that two out of three students who visit Regis apply to our school? Indeed, there is no better way to experience all that Regis has to offer than with a campus visit.

Campus Tours Student-led tours are scheduled Monday-Friday, three times a day (at 11am, 1pm and 3pm) throughout the year.

Open House This event allows prospective students and their families the opportunity to explore Regis College in depth by: taking a guided tour of campus led by a current student, meeting faculty members to learn about various academic programs, talking with Regis alumni, athletic coaches, and current students, and more. Open House typically takes place in the early fall.

Information Sessions Held on both selected weekday and weekend dates through the year, our information sessions include a general overview of the College, guided campus tour, interview (by appointment only) and lunch (optional).

Location
Regis College is located in Weston, Massachusetts, one of the safest, suburban communities in the entire state. Moreover, our beautiful, 132-acre campus is only 12 miles west of Boston, providing our students with the best of both worlds – the tradition of a small college environment with close access to the social, cultural and sporting resources of big city life.

One of the best Northeastern Colleges in the United States.
Princeton Review

Introducing our new President Antoniette M. Hays, PhD, RN. She is our tenth President and truly values the liberal arts foundation of a Regis education.

Spring 2011 marked the graduation of our first graduating class of male students. Congratulations!

Students can expand their knowledge with our new BS in Medical Imaging in Nuclear Medicine and new graduate degree programs of an MS in Biomedical Science and MS in Heritage Studies with a Global Perspective.

Regis Pride becomes part of the New England Collegiate Conference (NECC). Our Athletes take their talents to our new $8.5 million outdoor athletic complex for sports and recreation to compete in our new conference.

Both women’s and men’s basketball teams made it to the quarterfinals of the 2011 Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) New England Division III tournament. GO PRIDE!

Among a set of “hidden gem” schools in higher education.

Colleges of Distinction Guidebook

Financial Aid

Regis firmly believes in investing in the potential of its students through generous merit scholarships and need-based grants that are available.

For our incoming freshmen class:
- Over 90% received some form of institutional funding
- These awards helped to reduce the average student’s tuition cost by 50%

And we are committed to maintaining a similar financial aid model this coming year. In addition, many of our families apply for—and receive—a federal and state financial aid, which is separate from (and can be added to) Regis’ aid package.
