On the journey with your fellow Regis graduates

August 2022 will mark 1 year in higher education for Carla Acosta, M.Ed. '21 who writes:

“The Student Success Master’s Program prepared me for my new role as a Student Success Advisor for Wentworth Institute of Technology by enhancing my thinking, practical and application skills in supporting the whole child in all learning environments. The Program was an essential platform to help accelerate my career as well as knowledge in working in all educational spaces.”

TAKE 5

Words of wisdom from Carla Acosta

We asked Carla to share what she learned in order to obtain her current position and remain effective in the job. Here, in random order, are 5 of her priorities:

- Continue to advocate for yourself as a graduate student, you deserve/ have the right to resources and support as you continue with your education
- Community, Community, Community. Make sure you are connected to communities of all backgrounds and identities as they are essential to your personal and professional development.
- Take advantage of opportunities that stimulate you professionally and personally. In this world you are always a student.
- Be respectful to others. Strive to be the reason others believe in good people. The world is always “in those times” and if we can strive to be kind to ourselves and others, it puts a sense of ease and happiness to the day to day.
- Celebrate yourself Regis graduates!
