

Graduate Assistantships

We're hiring!

Graduate Assistantships offer a unique experience of gaining valuable professional skills while benefiting from a financial aid opportunity. As a graduate assistant, you'll work as a tutor or in an entry-level capacity in one of the many departments at Regis including Admissions, Student Affairs, Health Services, the Young School of Nursing, the Autism Center or Regis Online Programs, to name a few.

Graduate Assistantships are available to graduate students who are enrolled in a minimum of six credits within their graduate program and maintain a 3.0 GPA.

Two Graduate Assistant (GA) levels are available:

- 7.5 hours/week, 112.5 hours/semester: $2,500/semester tuition reduction
- 15 hours/week, 225 hours/semester: $5,000/semester tuition reduction

Career Corner

Congratulations to our May graduates and current students completing this semester!

Please take this brief survey: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/X3TJNFZ> to inform us of your career and/or academic plans and answer all questions as you are able. We really appreciate your feedback and wish you the very best in your career!

I know everyone is planning their next career move whether a full-time role, internship or a part-time job. Graduate Career Planning is thrilled to offer assistance throughout the summer months. You are welcome to schedule an appointment to brush-up your resume and cover letter, perform a mock interview, job search, perfect your 30-second commercial and learn about networking within your field.

Make sure you visit our Career Link online job board frequently as you will continue to have access to this resource even after you graduate. There is an events tab where you can register for virtual career workshops, employer information sessions and interviews (all facilitated using Zoom). Looking forward to discussing your goals and constructing a path to achieve them!

From roberthalf.com: Given the impact of COVID-19 and the current calls for social distancing, it's likely your next interview could be a video interview. Make sure you're ready to get in front of the camera by following these video interview tips. If you've never been asked to participate in a video interview during your job hunt, you will be soon.

A Message about the "Care of the Dear Neighbor" Task Force:

The "Care of the Dear Neighbor" task force was established at Regis in response to the COVID-19 Pandemic. This group is working to provide outreach and support to our Regis community and beyond by partnering with others, finding creative ways to offer spiritual and religious support; address physical and emotional needs; make sure inclusivity and sense of belonging ensues; and continue the work of mission integration in all that we do as a Catholic institution of higher education.

The “Care of the Dear Neighbor” task force wants to make sure that all students at Regis are aware of this group and its members. They want to hear from you – about your struggles and triumphs, your needs and ideas as to how all of us can be emboldened by our mission, inspired by our founders, the Sisters of St. Joseph, and representative of our core values to not only care of all of God’s creations, but to our call to love and serve our dear neighbor without distinction.

Below is a list of the task force members, along with the link to the Regis College Mission page. Please note that additional information about Regis Resources and outreach will be posted on an ongoing basis that you may find helpful. Feel free to contact any task force members via email and they will be in touch.

Task force members:

Dan Leahy, Director of the Center for Ministry and Service

Anabella Morabito, Associate Director of the Center for Ministry and Service

Fr. Paul Kilroy, Campus Minister

Sr. Mary L. Murphy

James Wildason, Assistant Director of Residence Life

Audrey Grace, Associate Vice President for Inclusive Excellence and CDO

Mary Lou Jackson. Special Assistant to the President for Mission Effectiveness Created specifically for rising high school juniors and seniors, this exciting program provides students with the opportunity to take two college-level courses, meet new friends, and receive personalized college application advice from our industry-leading professors.

We recognize there is a lot of uncertainty in the world right now. In order to reduce the potential impact of COVID-19 on the health and wellness of the Regis community, we have made the decision to offer our Summer Scholars Program fully online. With this in mind, we look forward to continuing to offer a fun, engaging program in this new format. In addition to earning six college-level credits, students will also benefit from college preparation sessions, virtual social activities, and one-on-one academic support.

Deadline for application materials is May 15, 2020. For more information, please visit our Summer Scholars Program website (www.regiscollege.edu/summerscholars) or contact us at summerscholars@regiscollege.edu.
