

Lisa Stand, JD

Lisa Stand, JD, (she, her) is a Senior Policy Advisor at the American Nurses Association. She is a member of ANA's Policy/Government Affairs team, representing the voice of nurses and nursing in federal regulatory matters. Her principal focus is on federal policies governing advanced-practice care, including Medicare payment and delivery reform. Her portfolio also covers nurse roles in the COVID-19 response, long-term services and supports, and nurse safety. Lisa has broad health law and policy experience, with a focus on health care financing and systems, having monitored and informed implementation of major legislation such as the Affordable Care Act and creation of the Medicare drug benefit. She has advocated for federal policies to improve the lives of older people, women with low-incomes, people living with HIV, and people with unstable housing. She also led the process for health care policy development at AARP for 10 years.
