

Regis College

THE FUNG SCHOLARS AND FELLOWS PROGRAM AT REGIS COLLEGE RECOMMENDATION FORM

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Fung Scholars and Fellows Program at Regis College a student must:

1. Demonstrate outstanding academic achievement as evidenced by their class ranking. The student's current school is responsible for reporting a student's class rank and the size of the class on the student's school record within the Common Application. The Office of Undergraduate Admission will calculate the student's ranking.
2. Possess a strong record of co-curricular involvement and a commitment to serving others.
3. Apply for undergraduate admission as a first-year student on or before January 15th, 2023
4. Plan to be a residential student, living on the Regis College campus.
5. Be a citizen of Hong Kong or Mainland China as evidenced on the student's passport.

Regis will not consider students who do not satisfy these criteria.

Application Process

Eligible students may apply for the Fung Scholars and Fellows Program at Regis College according to the following process:

1. Have their principal, headmaster, guidance counselor, teacher, or academic advisor complete a Recommendation Form by January 15th, 2023.
2. In January 2023, the Fung Scholar and Fellows Program at Regis College Committee will make an initial selection of eligible students based on their recommendation, and admission application. Selected students will move forward to the interview process.
3. Member(s) of the Fung Scholars and Fellows Program at Regis College Committee will interview (in person or virtually) selected eligible students.
4. The Fung Scholars and Fellows Program at Regis College Committee will make final selections for the Fung Scholars and Fellows Program at Regis College from the group of interviewed students.

Regis will not consider students who do not satisfy these criteria.
