

REGIS

For more information, please visit the Fast Track to a Master's Program webpage to learn more about registering for graduate level courses and earning your master's at Regis.

PREREQUISITE COURSE/S Prerequisite courses to take as an undergraduate for select graduate programs.

GRADUATE-LEVEL COURSES Graduate level courses to take as an undergraduate that will count as credit towards both your undergraduate and graduate degrees. Depending on the graduate program, up to 3 courses in total may be taken junior and senior year with faculty approval

WESTON-BASED HYBRID & ONLINE GRADUATE PROGRAMS Requires no additional formal application
MS in Applied Behavior Analysis (On-Campus)	No prerequisites	ABA 521 Autism Spectrum Disorders & Related Disabilities
MA in Counseling* (Hybrid)	PS 203 Intro. to Psychology	CP 600 Social and Cultural Foundation Counseling
	PS 233 Intro. to Human Development	CP 604 Theories of Counseling 1
	PS 309A Psychological Disorders: Adults or PS 314B Psychological Disorders: Child/Adolescent	CP 608 Mental Health Across the Lifespan
	PS 303 Research Methods Psy 1/Lab	CP 630 Clinical Research Method, Evaluation, Interpretation
MS in Occupational Therapy (On-Campus)	BI 105 Anatomy and Physiology I/Lab	You cannot take graduate classes yet, but those prerequisites should keep you busy!
	BI 106 Anatomy and Physiology II/Lab
	PS 233 Intro. to Human Development
	PS 309A Psychological Disorders: Adults or PS 314B Psychological Disorders: Child/Adolescent
	EXS 364 Kinesiology
	SO 201 Intro. to Sociology
	MA 210 Statistics
	PS 329A Neuropsychology or BI 306 Neurobiology/Lab
MA in Digital Marketing Communication[†] (Fully Online)	No prerequisites	MT 621 Marketing Strategies
		CO 622 Data Analytics and Research Methods
		CO 624 Fundamentals of Communication Theory
		MT 661 Business Communication for Managers
		CO 630 New Multimedia Communication
		CO 640 Nonprofit Communication
		CO 642 Grant Writing

		CO 644 Public and Private Disasters: Crisis Communication CO 612 Health Communication CO 620A Communication Across Differences CO 632 Sports Communication CO 634 Sports Marketing and Advertising CO 637 Sports Reporting
Master of Education (Hybrid)	No prerequisites required. The program is open to both individuals who are already licensed to teach and those who wish to become teachers	ED 523 Sheltered English Immersion Teaching ID 512 Humanities in the Classroom I ED 604 Culturally Responsive Teaching
Master's in Nursing (Hybrid) (if you are a nursing undergraduate)	Lucky you! You have already taken all required prerequisites.	NU 601 Nursing Theory HP 609 Health Policy, Politics, & Perspectives NU 605 Concepts in Nursing Leadership
Accelerated 2nd Degree Bachelor's or Master's in Nursing (if you are NOT a nursing undergraduate)	BI 105 Anatomy and Physiology I/Lab BI 106 Anatomy and Physiology II/Lab CH 105 Intro. to Chemistry/Lab PS 233 Intro. to Human Development MA 210 Statistics BI 108 General Microbiology/Lab	You cannot take graduate classes yet, but those prerequisites should keep you busy!
Master of Health Administration[†] (Fully Online)	No prerequisites	HP 602 Concepts in Health Administration HP 609 Health Policy, Politics, & Perspectives
Master of Public Health (Fully Online)	No prerequisites	PBH 600 Biostatistics PBH 633 Epidemiological Methods
Master's in Nursing (Fully Online) (if you are a nursing undergraduate)	Lucky you! You have already taken all required prerequisites.	NU 601 Nursing Theory HP 609 Health Policy, Politics, & Perspectives NU 605 Concepts in Nursing Leadership

Important Notes

*An interview will be required with the program director for students interested in pursuing the master's degree.

Programs that require an additional formal application towards completion of your bachelor's degree. It is recommended that students submit an application during their last semester of their bachelor's degree program.

† Indicates that you can complete your bachelor's and master's in 5 years. Other programs take longer.