Lessons and Carols for the Holidays

While the sounds of Christmas music may not fill the Fine Arts Center next month, Regis College will still celebrate the holidays with an arrangement of songs and readings by singers from across the university.

The Regis College Glee Club, Alumni Chorus, Chamber Choir, Pride of Christ student group, and Center for Ministry and Service are collaborating on a weekly virtual musical program for the Advent season. During the Advent season, recordings of music and student readings will be available each week on the university's YouTube and social media channels. For more information, please click here.
